

Nation Maker

Sir John A. Macdonald: His Life, Our Times

Vol. Two: 1867 - 1891

End Notes

PROLOGUE

1. Macdonald to Monck, June 26, '86, Lockhart, CHA Report, 1939, p. 127
2. Less autonomy than Haiti, Liberia, Wiseman, In Search of Canadian Political Culture, p. 60
2. Horace Greeley, "eel-skin", New York Tribune, June, 28, 1865
2. Robert MacNeil: not an "inevitable nation", American Review of Canadian Studies, 1991, p. 40
3. Dilke, "fog of unenterprise", Wade, French Canadians, p. 450
3. "the body, the vital organs," Waite, Pre-Confederation, p.251
- 3-4. Monck: "look forward to independence," Morris, The US and the Dominion, p. 168
4. Goldwin Smith: "unite themselves" Willison, Reminiscences, p. 73
4. Bancroft: "break into parts," Seward Papers, June, 15, '67

CH. 1. PRESENT AT THE CREATION

5. "l'indépendance nationale," La Minerve, July, 1, 1867
6. "the United States government are resolved," Macdonald to Brydges, Jan. 28, '70, Correspondence, pp 124-5 [cq.]
8. Langelier, "His eyes lively", Waite, Macdonald, p. 6
9. "a seedy beggar", Ibid, p. 163
9. "knew every chord", Pope, Memoirs, p. 294
9. women "passionate devotion", Willison, Reminiscences, p. 178
10. "Oh Sir John I do love you," Cartwright, Reminiscences, p. 47
10. "through fire and water", Willison, op cit, p. 180
10. "flocked to his railway coach," Hammond, Confederation, p. 41
- 10-11. Grant vs the barber, Lederman, Historic Kingston, 1973, No.22, p. 58
11. "suspicious strangers", Macdonald to F. Jones, May, 27, '68
11. "not a sufficient mathematician", Macdonald to Wiggins, Dec. 1, '70
12. "Hopelessly drunk", Meredith diary, Gwyn, Private Capital, p. 97
12. Macdonald: "altogether devoid of reading," Pope, Memoirs, p.12.
12. Macdonald, "no gratitude to be expected", Waite, Macdonald, p. 10-11
13. "First, second and third requirements," Pope, Memoirs, p.653
13. "No harsh, self-righteous," Grip, June, 13, '91
13. "treat them as a nation" Gwyn, The Man Who Made Us, p. 410
14. "loveable human being", Morris, Heaven's Command, p. 407
14. "We can't make room for you." Macdonald to Louisa, Johnson, Affectionately, p. 107
14. "I am now living" Ibid, p. 107-8

15. “hold Parliament on the kitchen tablecloths,” Gwyn, Private Capital, p. 191

CH. 2. AGNES OF GOD

17. “look in astonishment,” Reynolds, Agnes, p. 46

17. “moody brow”, Agnes, diary, July 6, ‘67

17. “Likes me to be near him,” Gwyn, Private Capital, p. 192

17-8, Lady Macdonald extends Macdonald’s life, Biggar, p. 105

18. “mole-catcher”, “tormenting”, Waite, Man from Halifax, p. 57

19. “insignificant spinster”, diary, July 5, ‘67

20. “tease the life,” Gwyn, Private Capital, p. 192

20. “forcible yet changeable face”, Reynolds, Agnes, p. 15

20. Studying French, Ibid, p. 52

20. “As long as I can help”, Lady Macdonald diary, Sept., 28, ‘67

20. “I try to be patient,” Ibid, Sept., 1, ‘68

20. “like to identify,” Ibid, July 17, ‘67

20-1. of Charlotte Rose, “so clever”, Gwyn, Private, p. 197

21. Lucienne Desbarats, “No dancing”, Ibid, p. 196

21. “pour tea untidily,” diary. Jan 2, ‘68

21. “he was charming,” diary, Jan. 4, ‘68

22. “in the habit of consulting her,” J. E. Collins, Macdonald, p. 507

23. “right stand against Balls,” diary, Feb. 7-8, ‘68

23. “How to arrange it,” Ibid, Nov. 17, ‘67

24. “Some things have happened”, Ibid, Jan., 11, ‘68

24. "I was overconfident, vain", Gwyn, op cit, p. 198
24. "my strength feels failing", diary, June, 21, '68
24. "the sweet happiness," Ibid, Sept. 22, '68
25. "a large dinner party," Macdonald diary, Nov., 21, '67
25. "the clock is striking ten", Gwyn, p. 193
25. "My darling held me," diary, p. 193

CH. 3. MODEST COUNTRY; AMBITIOUS LEADER

27. FN. Halifax Evening Express, Waite, Arduous, p. 4
28. "Lost a roan cow", Wallace, Victorian Liberal, p.66
29. Creighton, "favorite myths..." Russell, Odyssey, p. 11
29. "prosperity and civilization of nation", Charlottetown Examiner,
30. Divorces, Canada-US, The Week, Dec. 3, '89
30. Grant: "Church-going habits," QQ, April '94, p. 318-9
30. "besetting sin of democracy," Ottawa Times, ???
32. Dawson: "overthrow whole fabric," Cook, The Regenerators, p. 12
33. Grip: "The explicit curse of heaven", Ibid,, p. 142
33. "proper park" Canadian Monthly, Jan-June, '73, p. 427
33. Henry George: "advancing poverty amid" Cook, op cit, p. 108
34. "evangelical school," Willison, Reminiscences, p. 197
34. "no reason or justice," Bystander, May, 90
35. Macdonald, "immense masses of timber," to Sandfield Macdonald, June, 22, '71
- 35-6. Macdonald, "for the sake of power," Thompson, Reminiscences, p.231

36. “mere provincial politicians”, Macdonald to Lisgar, Pope, Memoir, p. 732-3
37. Macdonald: “small cloud of opposition”, Macdonald Papers, LB11, p. 989
38. “The difficulty is...” Macdonald to Chamberlain, Dec., 26, ‘68
40. Laurier, “at least fifty per cent”, Ward, CJEPS, Nov. ’52. p. 433
40. Debating tactics, Ibid, p. 434
40. Hugh John Macdonald, “like a city of the dead.”, Waite, Man from Halifax, p. 146
40. Sketches in India, Bond, Canadian Government, Ont. History, 1963, p. 31
41. Supreme Court Chief Justice, drunk at Rideau Hall, Gwyn, Private Capital, p. 190
41. develop downtown Ottawa, Macdonald, DCB on-line, p. 599
41. Macdonald: “British Museum”, Commons Debates, May 11, ’68, p. 281
42. Macdonald: “confidence of every section,” Commons Debates, April 3, ‘68
43. “right of any nationality”, Macdonald to John O’Connor, July, 5, ‘71
43. “Cartier is only waiting,” McGee to Macdonald, Glazebrook, Political Thought, p. 159
44. Brown, “letter suggesting a political alliance,” to Anne, Thompson, Mackenzie, p. 106
44. Mackenzie alarm, Ibid, p. 109.
45. “no regard to the status,” Macdonald to Chamberlain, Oct. 26, ‘68
45. “hand over all the loose fish”, Macdonald to Meredith, Gwyn, Private, p. 189
46. Quebec: 92 civil servants, Martin, The Challenge to Westminster, p. 95
46. “going over the Acts,” Macdonald to Sandfield Macdonald, July 1, ’68
- 46-7. “new Emigration Establishment,” Macdonald to Sandfield Macdonald, May 30, ‘68
47. “The Local Governments would do nothing,” Macdonald to Chamberlain, Chamberlain Papers, LAC,

CH. 4. A TRIUMPH; A TRAGEDY

49. McDougall, “expand or contract”, Morton, Critical Years, p. 224
50. Howe, “blow up Nova Scotia,” Beck, Howe, p. 210
50. “a large country and a small country,” Macdonald, Commons Debates, Oct.21, ’67, p. 1115
51. Monck, “maintenance of British power,” Warner, Annexation Movement, CHR, 1947, p. 159
52. “new system a fair trial,” Macdonald to McCully, Dec. 31, ‘67
52. “perpetual sulk,” Macdonald to Shea, Nov. 21, ‘68
54. “unable legally to carry out,” Macdonald to Allan, Sept., 29, ‘69
54. Macpherson, “relinquished the profits,” DCB on-line, Macdonald
54. Pope, “not worth one shilling”, Memoirs, vol 2, pp. 75-6
55. Macdonald, to Patteson, “without trials or worries,” Waite, Macdonald, p.18
56. Macdonald, “As to debts and worries”, Ibid, p. 18
57. McGee, “we are all foreigners,” Phelan, McGee, p. 284
57. “Give me again my harp of yew,” Ibid, p. 283
57. “Other politics...” Ibid, p. 284
57. “spirit of tolerance”, Slattery, The Assassination, p. 383
57. “a sort of dread,” Reynolds, Agnes, p.55
57. “John throw up a window,” Ibid, p. 55
57. “white with fatigue,” Ibid, p. 55
57. Macdonald, “ heart made for friends”, Commons Debates, April 7, ‘68
58. “beginning of his usefulness,” Macdonald about McGee to Bishop Connolly, July, 1, ‘68

59. "tell me he cannot feel," Agnes, diary,???
60. "seat in the Cabinet...might be misunderstood," Macdonald to Tupper, July 4, '68
- 60-1. "recommend a man to us," Macdonald to Howe, Sept. 15, '68
61. "completely paralyzed," Macdonald to Tupper, Oct. 27, '68
61. "relax or modify," Macdonald to Howe, ???
62. "abandon opposition to Confederation," Tilley to Macdonald on Howe, Smith, Tupper, (unpublished), p. 198
62. "the sole means", Macdonald to Tupper on Howe, Nov. 4, '68
62. "gain the prestige of extracting," Macdonald to Howe, Nov. 20, '68
62. "take the shilling," Macdonald to Davis, Jan. 15, '69
63. "inexcusable...disloyal" , Macdonald to Lisgar, March 14, '72

CH. 5. WHO SPEAKS FOR CANADA?

66. "powers of application", Waite, Arduous Destiny, p. 32
66. "Shut up in that great brain", Ibid
66. "chilly as the fin", J.C. Maclean to Macdonald, May, 1880
67. Blake: "importance of legislating," to Macdonald, Schull, Blake, p.60
67. "Misunderstood," Livermore, Personal Agonies, CHR, March 1975, p. 47
67. FN. "flower of my life", Ibid, p. 53
67. FN. "our friend Macdonald," Dufferin to Carnarvon, Correspondence, Oct.10, '74
68. "no right to ask him", Macdonald to Vankoughnet, Oct. 21, '68
68. "opportunity for communion", Schull, Blake, p. 43
69. Blake, "floodgates now opened," Commons' Debates, June, 11, '69

69. Ontario pays 27 cents, gets back six; Carty, National Politics, p. 158
69. Blake, "charter of rights... This compact," Globe, Nov. 24., '69
70. "destinies... separate interests", Schull, p. 81
70. Macdonald, "all the great subjects", Parliamentary Debates on Confederation, 1865, p. 41
71. "present system is an experiment." Macdonald to Cole, Feb., 3, '68
71. "you, an ardent Dominion man," Macdonald to Chamberlain, March 4, '68
- 71-2. "What a glorious programme," Macdonald to Tupper, Jan. 2, '69
72. FN. Governor Hill, "unfit subjects", Stanley, CHR, 29, no. 3, 1948
73. "we have had an infinity," Macdonald to Lisgar, Dec. 8, '69
73. "the Bulls that we read of," Macdonald to Bishop Connolly, Jan., 20, '70
73. "As a matter of policy," Macdonald to Allen, July 3, '71

CH. 6. GOOD TIMES AND HARD TIMES

76. Macdonald, "tender, loving care-taker", Lady Macdonald's diary,
77. "lying asleep on her blankets", Ibid April 5, '69
77. "my heart is cold", Ibid, April, 25, '69
77. "saddest time of my life", Ibid, May 11, '69
78. Macdonald, "flourishes greatly", to C. Quinn, June 5, '69
79. "my love of Power is strong", Lady Macdonald's diary, April, 19, '68
79. "selfish love of power", Ibid, Feb. 27, '68
80. Macdonald on Mrs. Hooper, "personal charms", to John Sandfield Macdonald, Jan. 20, '70
81. FN. Branch banks growth, Bumsted, Peoples Canada, p. 12

82. Gen. Michel, “hardly to be conceived,” Preston, Defence of Undefended, p. 41
82. Michel, “free and populous country”, Ibid.
83. Cardwell troop cuts, Stacey, Canada and British, p. 208
84. Monck, “true defence of our colonies”, Ibid, pp. 212-2
84. Granville, “injurious or distasteful”, to Lisgar, Ibid, p. 216
84. Lisgar, “defend every part, ”, Stewart, Macdonald and Imperial Commission, CHR, 26, no. 4, 1954, p 251,
84. Lisgar, “in reality independent”, Ibid, p. 265
85. Macdonald, “quite satisfied,” to Rose, Nov. 16, '69, Pope, Correspondence, pp. 102-5

CH. 7. MANIFEST DESTINY VERSUS MANIFEST DESTINY

86. Butler, “The great ocean”, McKillop, Contexts, p. 44
88. “grope along quietly,” Macdonald to Haliburton, July 9, '69
89. “belong to American or British”, Macdonald to R. W.W. Carrall, Sept., 29, '69
89. “no established institutions”, Morris, Commons Debates, Dec. 7, '67
91. Howe, “country not necessary”, to O'Brien, Oct. 23, '69, in Beckles Willson, Strathcona.
92. Howe, “ultimate destiny”, in C. Martin, CHR, 1957, p. 26
92. Butler, “only perfect socialists”; “denuded of animal life”, Great Lone Land in Macdonald, Immigration, pp. 279-80
92. Butler, “without law, order”, Ibid
94. Averil, “some leaders” Stewart, American Response, pp. 77-8
95. Northern Pacific, “Americanized in interest.”, Willson, Strathcona, p. 182
96. Chandler, “continent our land”, Shippee, Canadian-American, p. 209
96. Fish, “short of war”, Shippee, p. 205

97. Macdonald, "blackguard business", to Rose, Jan., 26, '70
98. Fish, "every member of cabinet". Warner, Continental Union, p. 97
98. Fish, "The Prest. expects", Fish Diary, vol 2, Oct. 4, '70

CH. 8. CHAMPIONS OF TWO NATIONS

99. "half-breeds attempted", Macdonald to Rose, Pope, Correspondence, p.102
100. Macdonald, "must never forget", to McDougall, Nov. 20, 1869
100. "no blood shed", Ibid,
100. Macdonald, Schultz "greatly disliked", to Rose, Nov. 29, 1869
101. McDougall "semi-savages", Ogram, East of Eden, p. 85
101. Macdonald: "want of suavite", to Rose, Nov., 23, '69
101. Macdonald, Dennis "cantankerous", to Rose, Sweeny, Cartier, p. 203
102. Tache, "exceptional people", Silver, A., Prairie Frontier, in Francis, Destinies, p. 141
103. Malmros, "quick of perception", of Riel, Friesen in Canadian Prairies, p. 118
- 103, Macdonald: "clever fellow", to Rose, Dec. 5, '69,
105. "poor and significant", Riel, Council of Assiniboa, Oct. 30, '69
105. Black coats, singing, dancing, Allemande left" Lussier and Sealey, The Other Natives, pp. 15-19
106. Macdonald "centaurs," Metis, to Rose, Dec., 18, '69
107. "After the start...bewildered buffalo", Hind, Red River Expedition, in Granatstein, First Drafts, pp. 69-70
108. 50 million buffalo, one hundred a minute, pemmican, Roe, The North American Buffalo
- 109."603 carts," Hind, op cit, p. 69

- 109-110. Malmros, “entire” French favour union, Creighton, vol. 2, p. 46
110. Ramsey, “success of annexation”, Bumsted, Red River, p. 72,
110. Macdonald: “no power or authority”, to Cameron, Nov., 23, ‘69
110. Macdonald: “flock of sheep”, to Cartier, Nov. 27, ‘69
111. Macdonald: “throw the responsibility”, Ibid,
111. Macdonald: “cannot accept North-West,” to Rose, telegram quoted in Ibid.
111. Granville, “gravely concerned”, to Lisgar, Stanley, Toil and Trouble, p. 75.
111. Macdonald, “protection of their lives”, to Rose, Nov. 27, ‘69
112. Macdonald, “assuming the Government,” to McDougall, Nov. 27, ‘69
112. Macdonald, “rights by jus gentium”; “by the United States”, Ibid
113. Riel, “free to adopt”, Declaration of the People of Rupert’s Land, Dec. 8, ‘69, in Glueck, Minnesota, p. 201
- 114, Granville, “could not force”, to Gladstone, p. 49
114. Macdonald, “very chop-fallen”, on McDougall, to Rose, Jan., 21, ‘70
114. Macdonald, “send Mr. Smith up”, to McDougall, Dec., 12, ‘69
115. Smith, biography, Newman, Adventurers, pp. 571-90
- 116, Smith, “law and order and property,”, Ibid, p. 601
117. Macdonald, “never was much”, to Archibald, Dec. 10, ‘69

CH. 9. BUILDING THE FUTURE; RUINING THE PRESENT

118. Macdonald to Cameron, “peace is kept”, Tupper, Recollections, p. 101
118. Macdonald to Rose, Feb. 23, ‘70
119. Macdonald: NWMP, all but 50 from west; 15 French, Horrall, CHR, June’ 82, p. 183

119. Macdonald “co-mingling of races”, Commons Debates 2, May, ‘70
120. Brydges, “prevent getting control”, to Macdonald, June 25, ’70, Pope Correspondence, p.123-4
120. Macdonald “our resolve to build,” , to Brydges, Ibid, p. 124-5
- 120-1, St. Paul Press, “Every vestige”, Gluek, Minnesota and Manifest Destiny, p. 262
121. Macdonald: “cannot send troops”, to Cameron, Nov. 23, ‘69
121. Macdonald: Wolseley not go, Macdonald to Stephen, Dec.13, ‘69
121. Macdonald, “poor people to reason”, to Capt. Healy, Jan., 3, ‘70
121. “repress”, Granville to Lisgar, Nov. 25, ‘69
121. “The best plan”: Macdonald to Rose, Jan., 26, ‘70
122. “all British troops”, Ibid
122. “received with kindness,” Macdonald to Donald Smith, Jan.. 27, 1870
123. “drift...annexation”, Smith to Macdonald, Dec. 28, 1869
123. “pecuniary arrangements”, Macdonald to Smith, Jan. 3, ‘70
123. Queen’s “sorrow and displeasure”, Bumsted, Rebellion, p. 125
124. Riel, “no half rights”, Ibid. p. 127
124. “remains in power”, Macdonald to Rose, March, 11, 1870.
126. Begg, “brain fever”, Morton in Beggs’ Journal, p. 32
127. “little evidence” that Scott drank. Bumsted, Daughter of Time, Prairie Forum, 1988, v. 3, p. 145
128. Riel, “We must make Canada”, Smith to Howe, April, 12, ’70.
128. Macdonald not know Scott’s name, Commons’ Debates, April 4, ’70, p. 829
128. “good deal complicated”, Macdonald to Carnarvon, April, 14, ‘70

CH. 10. RAGE AND RECOVERY

129. Globe, “new Upper Canada”. Oworm, Eden, p. 84
130. Le Pays, L’Evenement, Silver, French-Canadian Idea, p. 87
131. Foster, “New Nationality”, Gagan, The Relevance of Canada First, JCS., 1970, pp. 36-40
131. “a Northern people”, Ibid
131. “fulfill her destiny”, Allan Smith, Canada, American Nation, p. 30
131. “rattling good war”, Gagan, op cit.
132. Mair, “garden of world”, Shrine, Mair, p. 68
132. Mair, “biting back”, Ibid, p. 71
133. “heaven, bleu; hell, rouge”: Wade, French-Canadians, p. 360,
133. “hand of welcome”, Dennison, Imperial Unity, p. 25
133. Toronto Orange rally, Stanley, Riel, 137-9
134. “fanatical press”, Silver, French-Canadian Idea, p. 81
134. “must go”, Macdonald to Carnarvon, 14, April, 1870.
135. “by-gones be by-gones”, Macdonald to Archibald, Dec. 10, ‘69
136. Dugas, “soul of movement”, Gerhard Ens, JCS, 1994, Prologue to Red River Resistance, p. 117
136. “official status”, Morton, Manitoba, p. 137-8
137. 100,000 acres to 1.4 million, Stanley, Riel, p. 142
137. Riel: “We must seek to preserve the existence”: “all coming from abroad”, Convention at Fort Garry, Feb. 3, ’70, Ajzenstat, Canada’s Founding Debates, pp. 249-50
138. Manitoba as “God who speaks”: Morton, Manitoba, p. 163
138. Macdonald “indisposed,” Ritchot in diary, Bumsted, Red River, p. 179

139. “[Macdonald] seemed feeble”, Northcote diary, in Morton, op cit, p. 98

140. “most acceptable”, Ibid, p. 99

CH. 11. FIRST THE NORTH-WEST, THEN THE WEST.

141. “True Loyalty”, Howay,, BC and US., p. 193

141. Obituary in Ottawa Times, Biggar, p. 106

141. Dr. Grant, “little hope”, Creighton, v.2, ‘71

141. FN, “exhausted by the pain”, Biggar, p. 106-8

142. Macdonald: “do it again” Ibid., p.109

143. Macdonald by easy chair and carriage, Islander, July, 8, ‘70

144. “I shall not do much work”, Macdonald to Margaret, Sept. 23,’70, Affectionately, p. 111

144. “severe attack”, Macdonald to J. Gowan, Oct., 12, ‘71

146. “exercise your Royal Prerogative”, Cartier to Lisgar, June 8, ‘70

146, Lisgar: “injudicious, impolitic” Siggins, Riel, p. 183

147. Hugh John, Cartier to Macdonald, Wilson, Hugh John Macdonald, p. 11

147. “Mary, mother, we believe”, Oliver Mowat’s Ontario, p. 24

148. Hugh John “has had Outing”, Macdonald to Margaret, Sept., 23, ‘70

148. “half-naked Indian”, Redvers Buller, diary

149. “serpent in this Eden”, Stanley, Louis Riel, CHA Pamphlet, 1954, pp. 4-5

150. “pass the sponge.” Clinton Murdoch, testimony to Report of Commons Select Committee, ‘74

151. “moving in different planes”, Macdonald to Ibid, p. 106

151. “committed himself to nothing,” Globe, Feb. 17, ‘74

151. “short of pledging”. Ibid, May, 23, ‘74
151. Le National, Jane Graham, Riel Amnesty, p. 108
151. Funds for Riel, Macdonald to A.A. Tache, Dec. 27, ‘71
- 151: “make his case mine”, Macdonald to Tache, telegram undated.
152. “No union on account of love”, Helmecken, B.C. Confederation Debate, 1870, p. 13
152. Canadians as North American Chinamen, Barman, The West beyond, p. 92
- 152-3. “hated to be bothered with business”, Waite, Arduous, p. 12
153. B.C. steamship service/ stamps, Irwin, Pacific Railways, p. 87
153. “hold BC from its natural annexation”, Waite, Life and Times, p. 311.
155. “ ‘geographical expression’ “, Macdonald to Northcote, May 2, ‘78

CH.12 BRAGGING RIGHTS

156. “most difficult”, Macdonald to Adams Archibald, March 3, ‘71
157. Sherman “most agreeable,”, Macdonald to Tupper, March 5, ‘71
157. “penny-a-liners”, Ibid
157. Fish: “ripe for independence”, Goldwin Smith, Washington Treaty, p. 17
158. Monck: “nearly strong enough”, Ibid, p. 45
158. Gladstone: “sweeten the Alabama”, Jean Smith, Grant, p. 509
159. de Grey “gay enough”, Macdonald to Tupper, March 5, ‘81
160. “game of brag,” Hincks to Macdonald, Shippee, Canadian-American, p.345
160. Grant, “irresponsible agent”, Ibid, pp. 377-78
160. FN. Macdonald, “ablest statesman”, Smith, Grant, p. 511
161. American fishing boats “seized”, Shippee, op cit, p. 328

161. Grant, "European connection...cease", Ibid, p. 327
162. "dependency of the colonies," Times, Dec., 18, '69
163. Macdonald: "sacrifice of...the Dominion", Glazebrook, External Relations, p.120
163. "High Joint", Macdonald to Rose, Feb. 14, '71
163. "full of anxiety", Macdonald to Rose, Feb. 22, '71
164. "moderate terms", de Grey to Granville, March '71, Granville Papers
164. Hincks, Canadian fisheries "mere expense"
164. "pressure of American interests", Macdonald to Brega, April, 4, '70
165. "without her consent", Kimberley to Governor-General Lisgar, Smith, Grant, p. 60
165. "a floorer", Macdonald to Tupper, March 15,'71
166. "ratification", Granville to de Grey, March 20, '71
- 166, Macdonald on de Grey, "quick in perception", to Lisgar, March 15, '71
167. De Grey on Macdonald "Privy Councillor", to Granville, April 18, '71
168. "squeezable", Macdonald to Tupper, April, 18, '71
168. Lisgar on Macdonald "a huckster", Lisgar to Northcote, May, 6,'71
168. Granville, "more to say for himself," Granville to Gladstone, April 4, '71
169. "strictest confidence", Macdonald to Cartier, April, 16, '71
170. "all made speeches", Shippee, p. 366
170. De Grey on Macdonald, "complete disruption", to Granville, March 21, '71
170. Macdonald, "entering severance", to Hugh Allan, April 20, '71
- 170: "gravest kind", de Grey to Macdonald, May 6, '71
171. "he [Macdonald] ought to get nothing." De Grey to Granville, May 5, '71
172. "if the World were at war", Macdonald to Lisgar, June 22, '71

172. Macdonald: "Here go the fisheries", Nevins, Fish, p. 490.
172. Halifax Times, "were not ruined", Glazebrook, External Relations, p. 134
- 172-3. Globe, "poor parody", May 19, '71
173. De Grey on Macdonald, "duskiest horse", to Granville, May 5, '71
174. Macdonald, "induce to a liberal offer", Lisgar to Kimberley, May, 11, '71
174. "Knavery", Kimberly. Memo to Gladstone.
174. "abandon any attempt", Macdonald to Lisgar, July 21. '71
174. "make the assent", Kimberley to Gladstone, Dec. 15, '71

CH. 13. RAILWAY FIRST, ELECTION NEXT.

177. "cold-blooded murder", Blake, Schull, Blake, p. 73
177. "vexatious" Macdonald to John Carling, Dec. 23, '71
177. "no effective steps," Blake, Ibid. 85
178. Shaking Riel's hand, Archibald. Stanley, Riel, p. 174
178. Howe, "Many in the room", Lamb, Canadian Pacific Railway, p. 3
178. Fleming, $100 million, Practical Observations, p. 8
180. "or of the United States", Macdonald to Allan, Feb. 3, '71
181. "soon melt", Biggar, p. 223
- 181-2, Cooke "red-white and blue huckster". ???
182. "quiet emigration", Lamb, Canadian Pacific, p. 12
183. "persons you think proper," Royal Commission Report, p. 14, Hincks testimony.
183. Henry Cooke to Allan, Lamb, op cit, p. 23
- 183, "Canadian government friendly", Cooke to Puleston, Sept., 23, '72

- 184, "Dominion... to construct" Macdonald to Rose, Jan. 11, '72
184. "connected to strong men", Macdonald to Rose, Nov., 30, '71
- 184, Macdonald: "Canadian interests protected," Lamb, p.26
185. "feeling of fear," Macdonald. Sweeny, Cartier, p. 260
185. "absolute control", Royal Commission Report, 1873, p. 38, Macpherson testimony.
- 185-6. Allan abandons "confreres", Macdonald to Rose, April, 17, '72
186. Allan, $1.5 million. Berton, Vol. 1, p. 79
186. "political jealousies", Cooke to H. C. Farnestock, Jan. 10, '72
186. Macpherson company a dummy: Berton, vol. 1, p. 71
186. "Canadians only" Allan to McMullen, Aug. 7, '72; Irwin, Pacific Railways, p. 184
187. "no foreigners to appear", Allan to Cass, Aug, 7, '72' Globe, June, 3, '73

CH. 14. GRISTLE INTO BONE

189. Campbell, "influence of wine", E.A. Meredith Journal, Vol 2., Nov. 7, '73
190. Macdonald, "advent of the Grits", to Bishop Connolly, Oct. 9, '72
191. "gristle to bone." Macdonald to Rose, March 23, '72; and to W.H. Gill
193. Macdonald to Patteson, "put on war paint", April 2, '72
- 193, Macdonald, Union Party, Constitutional Party, to Patteson, Feb. 27, '72
- 193, Macdonald, "Association of Union and Progress", to W. A. C. Kerr, Sept. 21, '72
193. Macdonald, "Issuer of Marriage Licences," to McGuaig, July 27, '72
- 193, Macdonald, "five dollars", to George Dormer, August 11, '72
- 193-4. Macdonald, "Episcopal screw", to Bishop Connolly, May, 17, '72
194. Witton, working-class MP, Ostry, CHR, June, 1960. P. 117

195. Brown, employers' consortium, Ibid, p. 98
195. arrest of 13 union members, Ibid, p 99
- 195, Macdonald, "relieve Trade Unions", Leader, April 19, '72
196. Brown, "cheap political capital", Globe, Aug., 9, '72
- 197, Lady Dufferin: Witton in "evening clothes", Palmer, Working-class experience, p. 114
- 198 Lisgar to Col Sec."[no] assurance or promise", Lamb, Thunder in the North, p. 107.
198. "no government could stand" Macdonald to Tache, Tache testimony to Select Committee, '74
- 199 Macdonald, Commons Debates, May 3, 1872, pp.344-5
200. "almost any agreement" Irwin, Pacific Railways, p. 180
200. Allan, "patriotic act", Allan to Gen., Casse, July 1, '71, in Globe July 4, 1873
202. Allan: "put Govt. out of office," to Cass, July 12, '72. Lamb, pp 29-30
202. Allan: "this French railroad", Ibid
202. subsidized newspapers. Young, Defeat of George-Etienne Cartier, CHR, 1976. p. 398
202. 27 of 45 bleus with Allan, Young, Montreal Bourgeois, p. 122
203. Cartier, speaking from a chair. Young, CHR, 1976, p. 389
204. Allan, "Mebbe", Berton, vol. 1, p. 145

CH. 15 THE BLUNDER

205. "Our friends here have been liberal," Macdonald to James Grant Macdonald, Aug. 6 '72
206. "the only security we have," C.J. Campbell to A. Campbell, Aug 28 '72, Campbell Papers

208. "patronage, whatever its costs," Simpson in Spoils, p. 16
208. Smith, Week, 1884, in Underhill, Development of National Parties, p. 382
209. Stewart, Bumsted, vol. 2, p. 143
209. "When an Office is vacant," Macdonald to T.W. Anglin, Jan. 10 , '71
210. "trying to put Canada back," Macdonald to John Robinson, 5, Nov. 79
- 210 "wounded birds" Pope vol. 2, p. 3
210. "sweeping and dusting," Macdonald to A. Campbell, Sept. 20' 83
211. "It is very important," Allan to Macdonald, July 7, '72., LAC Vol.123
212. "if the government will pledge itself," Macdonald to Allan via Cartier, Creighton, vol. 2, p. 138.
212. "The friends of the Government," Allan to Cartier. Ibid, . 139
213. "the basis of the agreement," Macdonald to Cartier, Sweeny, Cartier, p.70
213. "I must have another ten thousand," Macdonald to Abbott, Telegram, Aug. 26, '72, Allan to Royal Commission, '73, p.137
215. "audacious. Insolent, unpatriotic," Macpherson to Macdonald, Sept. 17, '72
215. "It is perfectly futile," Inter-Oceanic executive committee, Sept. 26. '72
216. "complete identification,". '72 Privy Council report, Irwin, p. 188-9, 16 Oct
216. Allan to McMullen, Oct. 24,'72, in Royal Commission report, '73
216. "sorely perplexed to know what to do," Edgerton, to Cooke Dec. 24, '72
216. "there are rocks ahead", Macdonald, to Langevin, Nov. 28,'72
216. "I cannot defend," Howe to Macdonald, Sweeny, p. 307
217. "for the next five to ten years," Allan to Edgerton, Berton, vol. 1, p. 86
- 217 "just what they accuse, ", Cooke Papers, Jan. 30, '73

217. "Things are going very quietly". Macdonald to Cartier, Lamb, Canadian Pacific, p. 33

217-8. "Great events of a political character," Edgerton to Cooke, Jan. 1'73, Cooke Papers

218. "He is pleasant in manner," Macdonald re Lord Dufferin, to Lord Lisgar, Sept. 2, '72

218. "very charming," Macdonald re Lady Dufferin, Ibid.

218. "were the curb pressed too tightly," Dufferin to Carnarvon, Gwyn, Capital, p. 160

219. FN. "No one in the world can enter a room," Ibid, p. 163

220. "No one in the country," Dufferin, Finlay, Canadian History, p. 197

CH. 16 DECLINE

221 McMullen meeting with Macdonald, Creighton 148

222. deal cancelled, Allan to McMullen, Sept. 2, '73 (Globe report)

222. "We did not go," C.M. Smith to Macdonald, 20, Feb, '73

223 "quite satisfactory" Hincks to Macdonald, 25 Feb. '73,

223. Merchants' Bank box, Ibid

224 Second Parliament, Morton, Critical Years,

224, "good looking company" Dufferin to Kimberly, March 7, 73. Dufferin Papers

225,"financially maddest", Globe, April 1, '73

225. Huntington, no evidence, Berton, vol. 1, 92-3

226 "great uneasiness", Macdonald to Cartier, 10 April 72, LAC vol. 202

226 "really tragic", Duff to Kimberly, 29 May, 73

227. "mare's nest", Duff to Kimberly, Oct. 9, 73

227 "composite character", Macdonald to Mowat, Evans, Mowat, p. 64

228/9 Mowat to Macdonald, LAC vol. 329

230. “cannot hold pen, “, first line, by Cartier of May 17th letter to JAM completed by Josephine Cartier.

230. Macdonald: “Quite unable to say more”, Sweeny, p. 320

230, “final journey”, Josephine Cartier to Macdonald, May 22, 73

230. Macdonald “quite prostrate”, Duff to Kimberly, 21 June 73

230. Macdonald: ” I loved him when living,” Pope, Memoirs, p. 144

231. Dufferin on PEI, Eminent Islanders, p. 181

233. Blake “charge against itself”, Blake to Macdonald, 3 July, 73, LAC, v. 125

233. “corrupt conspiracy”, Globe, Berton, vol 1, 101

233. Two Allan letters omitted from newspapers, Creighton, vol. 2, 161

234. Allan letters written “in the confidence”, Macdonald to Dufferin, July 4, 73

234 . Allan letter “untrue”, Ibid

234. “fizzle” Macdonald to Judge Amour, 8 July, 73

234, “position... unassailed” Duffer to Macdonald, July 21, 73

235. Headline: “The Pacific Scandal”, Berton, vol. 1, 103

235. Foster, “large sums”, Dufferin to Kimberly, March 18, 74

236. Cartier to Allan “further sum,” Berton, vol. 1, 104

236. Macdonald, “I must have another ten thousand”, Berton 104

236. “safe judges”, Campbell to Macdonald, July 18, ‘73

237. “Overwhelming misfortune”, Macdonald to Dufferin, Aug 7, 73

236. Montreal Witness report, Beaver, Oct-Nov. 07, p. 35

237. Globe, “accident by bathing”, Ibid 37

237. “lying perdu”, Dufferin to Kimberly, Nov. 6, 73

237. Macdonald: "Never better," Beaver, p. 37
238. "excellent health", Ibid, p. 37
238. NWMP: "preservation of the peace" Act Respecting..a Police Force in the North West' May 23, 1873
239. Macdonald "styled Police", to Capt Cameron, D. R. Dec. 21st, '69
240. "danger of Indian war," Macdonald to Cartier, June 6, '71
240. "similar to Irish Constabulary", Macdonald, Commons Debates, 32 March, 73
240. Macdonald: "little gold lace," Ibid
240. "Force should be sent up, "Macdonald to Dufferin, Sept, 24, 73, LAC vol. 523
240. Benton Record: "fetched their man," Atkin, Maintain The Right, p.118

CH. 17. FALL

244. "humiliated people" Schull, Blake, p. 180
245. Commons confrontation, Thompson, Mackenzie, p. 158-9
245. Liberals: "the privileges and independence, " Ibid , p. 160
245. Blake: "What possible position do we occupy," Schull, Blake, p. 111
245. 300, copies of Blake speech, Ibid
246. Gowan: "evil-speaking, slandering..."to Macdonald, 5 May,' 73
247. "astonishing charges", Kimberly to Dufferin, Aug 4, '73
247. Dufferin, 10 weeks prorogation, Creighton, vol. 2, p. 166
247. Dufferin: "difficult position", to Macdonald, July 31, '73
247. Dufferin: "glorious reaction", to Macdonald, Aug. 24, '73
247. Carlton and Reform clubs, Macdonald to Dufferin, July 3, '73

248. "It is with greater pain", Dufferin to Macdonald, Oct. 19. Pope, Correspondence, pp. 228-9
248. Dufferin: "It is still an indisputable fact", Ibid
248. Dufferin: "Your immediate and personal connection," Ibid
248. Dufferin: "Independent of the personal attachment," Ibid
249. Tupper on Macdonald resignation, Wilfrid Smith, Charles Tupper, p. 231, unpublished, LAC.
249. Dufferin to Macdonald, "in some degree cancelled", Dufferin to Kimberly, 26 Oct. '73
251. "The Old Man is on his feet," George Ross, Getting into Parliament, p. 70
251. Macdonald: "foreign and alien power", to Huntington, in Berton, vol. 1, p. 135
252. Macdonald exchange with David Blain, Ibid, p. 135
- 252-3. Macdonald Speech, Pope, Memoirs, pp. 558-9
253. "a very fine speech," Lady Dufferin, Journal, Nov.4, '73
253. "courage of their convictions", Globe, Nov. 4, '73
253. Pope: "mulberry trees", op cit. p. 559
254. Blake: "Government got the money", Schull, p. 113
254. Blake: "This House is to a...large extent," Ibid
254. Macdonald swears at Donald Smith, Ross, Getting into Parliament, p. 73
254. Smith: "no corruption [but] grave impropriety", Globe, Nov. 7, '73
255. Macdonald on Smith, "lick that man", Newman, Adventurers, p. 619
255. Macdonlad: "I suppose I shall have to go to," Waite, Macdonald, p. 106
255. Macdonald to Lady Macdonald: "relief to be out of it", Pope, Memoirs, pp. 195-6
256. Armor de Cosmos in Commons, Waite, Macdonald, p. 107
256. "We are theirs", C.H. Macintosh to Macdonald, Jan. 30, '74

256. Globe: “His role...played out.”, Waite, op cit., p. 108

256. Goldwin Smith: “kept his own hands clean,” Canadian Monthly, Aug, 3, 1873

257. Dufferin: “terror and shame”, in Dufferin-Carvarvon Correspondence, March 18, ‘74

CH. 18. A SECOND ACT.

261. “I cannot last,” Macdonald to Meredith, E. A. Meredith Journal, v.8, 7, Nov. ‘73

261. “My fighting days”. Macdonald to Tupper, 24, Aug., ‘74

261. Macdonald: “publish an editorial,” Waite, Macdonald, p. 110

261. “dressed in a Red River sash,” Willison on Macdonald in Reminiscences, p. 131

261. Campbell, “had Sir John kept straight,” to Meredith on Macdonald, Gwyn, Capital, p.131

262. Belford on Macdonald: “helpless as a baby”, Phenix, Private Demons, p. 234

262. “entirely routed”, Dufferin to Carnarvon, Correspondence, Dec. 8, ‘74

262. Macdonald: “never find us opposing”, Mail 17, Nov. ‘73

262 Macdonald: “no advantage in advertizing,” Pope, Correspondence, p. 243

263. “sick, sick, sick”, Macdonald to Alfred Jones, Nov. 10, ‘73

263. “horde of spies”, Thompson, Mackenzie, p. 174

264. Mackenzie: algebra and geometry, Ibid. p. 173

264. Brown/Fish negotiations. Careless, Brown, p. 313

264. Reciprocity rejected, Ibid, p. 322

264. “to see whether the opponents,” Dufferin on Macdonald to Thornton, 13, Jan., ‘74

265. “the fine arts of double-talk”, Graham, Riel Amnesty, unpublished thesis, p. 140

266. Dufferin: “no government is strong enough”, to Carnarvon, Correspondence, p.89

267. Macdonald: “very guarded”, [Cartier] “far more loose”, Ibid, p. 85-86
267. “No argument will ever persuade the French population”, Ibid, p. 90
268. Dufferin: “the Queen’s name... commands,” Ibid, Oct., 12, ‘74
268. Liberal newspaper, Heick, published thesis, p. 164
269. Macdonald reading, from Sheridan to Mahon, Swainson, Macdonald, p. 105
269. Trust & Loan Co. moves to Toronto, DCB online, Macdonald, p. 604
269. “indifference to...law”, Phenix, p. 238-9
269. “the bulk of your property”, Hugh John to Macdonald, Affectionately, March 25, ‘74
270. Macdonald on Jean King, in Wilson, Hugh John Macdonald, p. 15
271. Macdonald at wedding, Goldwin Smith, Reminiscences, p. 433
271. “I had better go out”, Hugh John to Macdonald, Affectionately, Nov. 30, ‘75
271. “the end of the year will be convenient, Macdonald to Hugh John, Ibid, Dec. 2, ‘75.
272. Bedford-Jones: “the shock was awful,” Reynolds, Agnes, p. 80
272. “What passed between us...his eyes closed,” Ibid, p. 81
272. “my oldest and sincerest friend”, Macdonald on Margaret to Williamson, Affectionately, March 11, ‘76
273. Dufferin: “honest, industrious, but he has little talent”, Dufferin on Mackenzie to Carnarvon, Correspondence, April 17, ‘74
273. “Sir John could refuse the request”, Ross, Getting On., p. 222
273. “like a clerk, slaving”, Grip on Mowat, April 3, ‘80
274. “the colonial connection...a golden chain”, Macdonald, Commons’ Debates, March 3, ‘75, p. 981
275. “There’s life and spirit in the old man,” Grip, Nov. 13, ‘75
275. Cartwright: “no time for experiments,” in budget of Feb. 26, ‘76

CH. 19. BISMARK'S TWIN

277. "Canada for Canadians." Finlay, J. L., Canadian History, p. 216
278. "good wine vinegar", Macdonald to D. Macdonell, Dec. 24, '64
278. "a protectionist", Macdonald to Isaac Buchanan, 28 Nov., '59
279. "Patriotic Industrial Policy", Cross, Canada's Age, p. 37
279. John Rae on government intervention, Goodwin, Craufurd, Economic Thought, p. 126
279. Macdonald on economics as "a tentative science" and free trade as "almost into a religion," Commons' Debates, March 7, '76, p. 262
280. "Our game is to coquet with", Macdonald to Macpherson, Feb. 20, '72
280. "the Paper must...advocate a readjustment," Macdonald to Patteson, Feb. 27, '72
280. Macdonald: "the feeling has grown up", to George Stephen, Feb. 20, '72
281. Mackenzie: "contrary to... just laws"; Thompson, Mackenzie, p. 351
281. Cartwright, "past extravagance...flies on a wheel"; Commons Debates, Feb, 20, Feb. 22, Feb. 28, '77
282. Macdonald: "If ever there is a time when it is lawful", Commons Debates, March, 7, '76, p. 490-2
282. Blake: "some common ground...to be shared," in A National Sentiment, pamphlet, Oct. 3, '74
- 282, Dufferin: "Sir John himself I perceive," to Carnarvon, Correspondence, April 5, '77
283. McInnes "all under my thumb", Foster, Genesis of the National Policy, Ph.D. thesis, p. 430
283. "never proposed an increase," Macdonald to Goldwin Smith, Reminiscences, p.43
284. "substantials [and] delicacies", Creighton, vol. 2, p. 220
284. Macdonald: "The great question before the country," Mail, July 28, '76
285. Bellville picnic crowd of 15,000; Creighton, op cit, p. 225

285. Macdonald: "No country is great with only one industry," Parkin, Macdonald, p. 222
286. Globe: "The less the state regulates," Jan. 6, '81
287. not one steel rail manufactured, in Bliss, Northern Enterprise, p. 286
287. Bismark, Crankshaw, p. 360-4
- 288 Macdonald: "there can be little doubt that...the next Pope," to Galt, June. 8, 1874
289. Dufferin: "The two parties have been bespattering each other," to Carvarvon, Correspondence
289. "a happy soul", Canadian Monthly, July, '77, p. 85
290. Macdonald not drinking, Dufferin to Carnarvon, Correspondence, May 3, 1877
291. Laurier: "I am one of those.. there are abuses to be reformed," Schull, Laurier, p. 118-120
292. Macdonald on Laurier: "too old," Pope, Day, pp. 161-2
292. Macdonald: "wise tariff adjustments", Commons Debates, March 12, '78,
292. Macdonald: "There are nation considerations," Ibid,
293. Macdonald: "The people of that country," Finlay, Canadian History, p. 216
293. Macdonald: "We have no manufacturers. We have no work-people," op cit, March 12, '78
293. Macdonald: "no nation has risen", Bliss Northern Enterprise, p. 251
294. Grip: "You this great truth should know, May, '77

CH. 20. THE PEOPLE CHANGE THEIR MINDS

295. Grimason: "to go to the divil", Biggar, p. 240
296. Macdonald to Lady Macdonald: "If we do well," Pope, Memoirs, vol. 2, p. 202

296. Macdonald: "We will not be trampled upon", Conjuncture of Interests, Forster, p. 95
- 296-7. "must have graduated as a horse thief," Mackenzie to J.D. Edgars, Septg. 24, '78
298. Brown wounded by employee, Careless, Brown, p. 366
299. Dufferin, "very gushy," Macdonald to Tupper, 9 Oct. '78
300. "good health," Macdonald to Louisa, Oct. 2, '78, Affectionately, p. 130
300. Macdonald "old", Louisa to Williamson, May 3, '81, Ibid, p. 144
300. "vigorous steps" Macdonald to Louisa, July 6, '79, Ibid, p. 138
301. Macdonald: "Vamoose from this ranch," Creighton, vol. 2, p. 249
301. FN. "Cascapedia salmon," The Week, Nov. 6, '84
302. "The house seems so dull and lonely". Mary to Macdonald, Oct. 12, '77, Affectionately, p. 125
302. Macdonald, "quietly persuaded them to stay", Biggar, p. 257
303. Lady Macdonald on John Thompson as "a pervert", Reynolds, Agnes, p. 136
303. Princess Louise: "You must know in how many ways I admire [Lady Macdonald]" to Macdonald, Feb., 20, '83, Pope, Correspondence, p. 260
304. Thompson on Lady Macdonald dinners, Waite, Macdonald, p. 34
304. Grimason on Lady Macdonald, "looking after him"; "keeps her own cow", Biggar, p. 239-43
305. Macdonald: "We find every crevice," to A. Monteith, Dec. 2, '78
305. Macdonald: "unwilling to remove," to J. C. Rykert, Dec. 16, '78
305. Macdonald: "I am bored to death," to M. Griffin, Oct., 10, '82
306. "exaggerated expectations", Goldwin Smith to Macdonald, Oct., 4, '78
306. Tilley: "The time has arrived," in budget debate, 1879, Stacey, Age of Conflict, p. 32

307. Tilley eye strain, in Forster, Conjuncture, p. 191
307. Tilley: “to select for a higher rate of duty,” Ibid, p. 190
307. Macdonald: “We will make every manufacturer”, Forster, Nation Policy, JCS Vol. 2, Aug., 1979.
308. Macdonald: “promote trade with Britain”, Memorandum to Colonial Office, Aug. 20, ‘79
- 308, “the fiscal policy is a matter for decision by the Dominion”, Colonial Secretary to Lorne, March 12, ’79, Stewart, p. 307
309. Macdonald: “The chief difficulty is that England has nothing to give”, to Times, Aug. 9, ‘80
309. “Score for NP”, new companies, Bliss, Canadianizing American Business, in Close the 49th Parallel, I. Lumsden, p. 27-42
309. “Although it neither created nor sustained Canadian manufacturing,” Bliss, Northern Enterprise, p. 227

Ch. 21. A CONSIDERABLE MAN; A CONSIDERABLE EMPIRE

- 312-3. “This vexes me,” Disraeli to Lorne, Aug., 13, ‘79
313. Disraeli: “He is gentlemanlike, agreeable”, on W. Money Penny, Life of Benjamin Disraeli, Vol. 6, p. 445
313. Disraeli: “given me an very bad night,” Ibid
- 313-4. Davin: “Sir John is probably the better debater,” in Willison, Reminiscences, p. 86-7
314. Dilke train spots ‘Disraeli’, Collard, All Our Yesterdays, p. 29-30
314. “with a view to succeeding the great statesman”, Biggar, p. 185
315. “here he was engaged in the development of a nation,”, Ibid, p. 185
316. Macdonald: “Their tone is so high,” to James Gowan, June, 22, ‘81
316. “All my hopes...”, Macdonald speech, Address to the Electors, April, 1860, p. 6

316. Macdonald: independence, "tantamount to annexation," To R.W.W. Carrall, Sept. 29, '69
317. Canada's military capabilities, John Gordon in Imperial Canada, p. 51
- 317-8. Macdonald quoted for/against Imperial Federation, in Dilke, Greater Britain, p. 481
319. "hardly a moment of day," James Morris, quoted in Moyles, Imperial Dreams, Colonial Realities, p. 5
- 319 "Imperialism was one form of nationalism", Berger, Sense, p. 258
320. "How petty our interests," Ibid, p. 107
320. Leakcock: "I am an Imperialist," in Bumsted, Peoples of Canada, p. 151
321. Montreal, "British subject I was born", Macdonald, in Mail, July 9, '75
- 321, "England would be the central power," Macdonald, Ibid, July 5, '75
321. Macdonald: "Gradually a different colonial system," Confederation Debates, 1865
321. "seeking common cause", Macdonald to J. Gown, July 3, '84
- 321-2, Macdonald: "shaky old mother...England has culminated:", Ibid
322. Cecil Rhodes letter to Macdonald, Pope, Day, p. 174-5
322. "The Suez Canal is nothing to us", Macdonald to Tupper, March 12, '85
323. Macdonald: "Well here is a war the mother country," Alice Stewart, CHR, June, 54, Imperial Defence Commission, p. 129
323. Macdonald: "We would never agree to send," in 1881 speech, quoted by G, Smith in letter to Mail, Feb., 18, '88
323. Macdonald: "Queen of Canada", Creighton, vol. 2, p.207
324. "Canada has ceased to occupy", Confidential Memorandum. Aug. 17, '79
324. "that the cry of Independence would be raised," Dufferin to Carnarvon, Correspondence, April 25, '74
325. "We might call him Nuncio or Legate", Macdonald to Lorne, Feb. 5, '80

325. “By establishing a Jew colony here,” Macdonald to Galt, Feb. 26, ‘82

325. FN. Serve poor food, Macdonald to Galt, Feb., 27, ‘81

CH. 22. BUILD IT AND THEY WILL COME

328. Minnesota as “at the North Pole”, Berton, vol. 1, 316

329. Stephen: “It was impressed on me,”. MacDougall, Character of the Entrepreneur, in Canadian Business History, p. 193

329. one-way engine to Winnipeg, Waite, Arduous Destiny, p. 60

330. immigrants, Canadian Immigration, Macdonald, p. 197, and Arduous Destiny, p. 62

331, Tupper-Macdonald quarrel, in Waite, Macdonald, Dalhousie Review, 148-9

331. Pope, “catch them before they invest”, Skelton, Railway Builders, p. 139

331. Blake: B.C., as “a sea of mountains”, Schull, p. 96

332, Tupperm “a blizzard secreted”, by Ross, quoted in Gwyn, Private Capital, p. 63

332. Tupper: “I want to submit a proposition”, Harkin, Reminiscences [of Tupper] p. 101

332. Macdonald: “a very large order”, Ibid

333. Tupper: “the rapid settlement of the public lands”, Ibid, p. 102

333. Stephen: “to the enormous responsibilities...more or less substantial”, to Macdonald, July, 9, ‘80

334.Steoehn: “off the notion”, Ibid

334. “ruin of us all”, Stephen to Macdonald, in Lamb, p. 70

334. Macdonald-Smith brawl in Commons, Preston W. Strathcona, p 108-112

334. Smith, “like a baby” Stephen to Rose, in Gilbert, Lord Mount Stephen, p. 72

335. Stephen: “might as well have been thrown into the Lake”, to Macdonald, Oct., 18, ‘80

335. Ottawa Free Press and Manitoba Free Press, Berton, vol. 2, p. 353-4
336. Goldwin Smith: "What is truly momentous," Bystander, Nov. 80, p. 578
- 338-9. Macdonald: "I am not well"; "a farce," Commons Debates, '80-'81, p. 485-495
339. Macdonald: "our hopes of being;"; "give us a great and united," Ibid
339. "CPR a fixed fact", Macdonald to Galt, Feb., 17, '81
339. "There was no ascertainable cause", Macdonald to Tupper, April 11, '81
340. "I have no pleasure nowadays", Macdonald to A. Campbell, July, 12, '80

CH. 23. THE BEST OF TIMES

342. Winnipeg vs. Chicago properties, Berton, vol. 2, p. 52
343. "a short life," George Ham, Reminiscences of a Raconteur, p. 31
344. "the CPR is a fixed fact," Macdonald to Galt, 27, Feb., '81
345. "unsurpassed fertility," Macoun, Autobiography, 158-9
346. 300 million cultivatable acres vs. 80 million, Ibid.
346. Macdonald: " a lit-tle more wood," Biggar, p. 251
347. Van Horne, "I eat all I can," Bridle, Sons of Canada, p. 181
348. Van Horne, "I had only to spend the money," Lamb, Canadian Pacific, p. 88
348. "All I want is to brag," Macdonald to Stephen, Sept. 6, '82
348. "compelled to disallow." Macdonald to Norquay, Nov. 5, '81
349. "Every local interest," Macdonald to Corbett Locker, Nov. 9, '82
349. "See the Conquering Hero," Creighton, vol. 2, p. 326
349. Macdonald, "travelling over it in person," Mail, Nov., 24, '82
349. Ottawa phone directory of 200, Waite, Arduous, p. 22

350. Immigration record, Waite, Ibid, p. 152
350. Macdonald: “protect the Canadian whores,” Pope Maurice, Public Servant, p. 38
350. Macdonald: “centres of art and civilization,” Vance, Canadian Culture, p. 213
- 350 Lorne: “money rolling in” to Kimberley, March, 22, ‘82
351. Lady Macdonald, “begged Sir John very hard,” Reynolds, Agnes, p. 96
352. Earnscliffe, price and renovations, Gwyn, Private Capital, p.202
352. “pride of Agnes’ heart,” Macdonald to Williamson, Jan. 11, ‘89
352. John A’s toys, Creighton, vol. 2, p.401
- 352-3. Macdonald routine, hansom cab to Hill, single glass of wine, Pope, Memoirs, p. 640
354. Macdonald: “I do not want anyone around me,” Pope, Memoirs, p. 656
354. Macdonald: “Joe shall write it,” Lady Macdonald Introduction to Ibid, p. XIV
354. Macdonald: “Young man, never gain attempt to report,” Ibid, p.645
357. Kingston British Whig, Jan. 29, ’83: “army of revivalists”, “I ain’t gonna sin no more,” from Moyles, speech: ‘Happy Jack” Macdonald and The Salvation Army, to Kingston SA Advisory Board, May, 2008.p. 2
357. Capt. Abby: “He’s only a gentleman and you all know him,” Ibid, p. 5
359. Engles: “fights capitalism in a religious way,” Labour/Le Travail, 1991, Lynne Marks.
359. Macdonald, “always had a kind word,” Pope, Memoirs, p. 666
359. “productive of great good.” Macdonald to Stephen, Nov. 10, ‘90

CH. 24 A DREAM BAULKED

360. “The judicial lawmakers, not John A, Macdonald,” Saywell, Lawmakers, p. 309
362. Dicey, “federalism is...legalism”, Black, Divided Loyalties, p. 113

- 363-4. Macdonald: “with great caution”, Vipond, Constitutional Politics, JCS, June, ‘85 p. 276
364. Macdonald: “the Constitution would not be worth”, to James Quinn, May, 29, ‘73
364. Macdonald: “The Local Governments would do,” to Chamberlin, Dec. 26, ‘68
365. Macdonald: “We at Ottawa had no right of interference”, W. A. Howland, 1, Nov., ‘82
365. “the church was the state”, Morton in Shield of Achilles, p. 316
365. Macdonald: “a conflict may ere long arise”, to Chamberlin, Oct., 26, ‘68
365. “than the ruling party”, Pope, Correspondence, Oct. 26, ‘68, p. 75
366. Macdonald: “We represent ”, to Campbell, Jan., 14, ‘82
366. Macdonald, “We are not half a dozen provinces,” Commons Debates, 1882, p. 924
366. Laurier: “seven different communities”, Neatby, Laurier and a Liberal Quebec, p. 23
366. “repudiation of Confederation”, Commons Debates, May, 14, ‘73
- 367, Macdonald, “great subjects of legislation,” Rowell-Sirois Report, p. 36
367. Mowat, “weld us into a nation”, Evans, Mowat, p. 52
367. Dunkin: “some older nationality”, Bumsted, Peoples of Canada, p. 14
368. Goldwin Smith: “Sectionalism reigns”. Smith, Political Destiny, p. 16-17
368. Red Ensign, Ewart, Future of Canada, p. 66
369. Mowat, “Vote for the Queen”, Evans, Mowat, p.25
369. Mowat, “a genius for reconciling duty and opportunity,” Williamson, Reminiscences
370. “His hand-writing”, Lockhardt, thesis, Early Life, p. 25
371. “each Province is a quasi-Sovereignty”, Macdonald to Mowat, Jan. 7, 1873

371. Macdonald re Mowat: “that little tryant”, Evans, Mowat, p. 162
371. Macdonald: “the whole system”, Commons Debates, Feb., 12, ‘83, p. 24
372. “For over a generation,” Willison, Reminiscences, p. 95-6
372. W.T. R. Preston as “Hug the Machine,” Ibid
375. “Canada is so separated”, Macdonald to Meredith, Jan., 14, ‘82
375. Macdonald: “an impatience [with]... Imperial authority”, Commons Debates, 1875, p.981
375. Lord Cairns: “equivalent to a complete severance,” Farr, Colonial Office, p. 144
376. “The true spirit of our Constitution,” Blake, in Arduous Destiny, p. 48
376. Mowat: “I claim for the Provinces,” Evans, Mowat, , p. 154-5
- 376-7. “in time, the Supreme Court”, Saywell, Lawmakers, p. 56
377. JCPC, 150 colonies etc., in Howell, The Judicial Committee, p. 38
378. Haldane: “In a series of masterly judgments”; re Lord Watson, in “skeleton constitution”, Judicial Review, Cambridge, 1899,
378. Haldane: “a statesman as well as a jurist,” re Lord Watson, Ibid.
379. Justice Gwynne: “the thin end of wedge”, in Saywell, p. 81
379. “The provinces are virtually separate countries”, Ibid, p. 83
- 379, Macdonald: “My opinions greatly supported,” to Campbell, Saywell, p. 92
380. “supreme and has the same authority”, Morton, Confederation,
380. “On Mr, Hodges’ billiard table,” Morton, JCS, May ‘66, in Francis, Canadian History, p. 140
380. Lord Watson: “The object of the BNA Act”, Saywell, Lawmakers, p. 128
380. Watson: “rather, each province retained,” Russell, Odyssey, p. 43
381. Macdonald: “I agree with much that you say,” Gowan, Nov. 3, ‘84

381. Cairns: “a few elderly men”, in, D. Williams ed., Constitution, Government and Society in Canada, p. 58-9

381. Cairns: “not in isolation,” Ibid.

382. Haldane, “a new form”, Cambridge Law Journal, 1922, p. 150

CH. 25, THE WORST OF TIMES

384. “age that had failed” [cq.], Careless, Canada, pp. 295 and 312

384. “the ultimate union”, G. Smith in Fortnightly Review, (London), in series, Political Destiny of Canada, 1877.

386. “You’ll never die John A.,” Mail, Dec. 18, ‘84.

386. Macdonald”: North-West as “Crown Colony,” Owram, Eden, p. 138

387. “The government is too old [cq.],” Macdonald to Tupper, Creighton, vol. 2, p. 421

387-8, “developed the habit,” Sowby, thesis, Macdonald the Administrator, unpublished, p. 232

288. “Old Tomorrow”, “Lord Tomorrow,” in Swainson, Macdonald, p. 130

389. “I did run away,” Macdonald to Gowan, Nov., 3, ‘84

390. Charles Stewart: “to obtain for ourselves that independence,” in McCutcheon, Prairie Agrarianism, Prairie Forum, Nov., ’76, pp. 79-94

390. Protective Union, bulk wheat to Ontario, Ibid.

391. “This country’s a regular fraud, O” Moyles, Imperial Dreams, p. 115

391. “For the hideous discontent,” Manitoba Free Press, Aug. 28, ‘87

391. “The idea that the North-West is to eastern Canada as India,” Edmonton Bulletin, Jan., 19, ‘84

392-3. “Metis and their priests misunderstood”; “coincided with their demands,” Beal/MacLeod, Prairie Fire, p. 48

393. Dumont: “force the government” Charette, Vanishing Species, p. 110

395. Riel: “four of you who have arrived,” Siggins, 324

Ch. 26. GOD’S MESSENGER

396. “his eyes danced”, Winnipeg Daily Sun, June, 28, ‘82

396. Riel: “No one wanted me,” to Joseph Riel, Collected Writings of Louis Riel, (CW) v.2 133

397. Father Andre: “I do not entertain the least suspicion,” to Dewdney, July 21, ‘84

397. Andre, “acted orderly and peaceably,” Ibid.

399. Dewdney: “strong and gifted man,” on Macdonald, Titley, Dewdney, p. 28

399. “the Conservative Party on wheels,” DCB online, Macdonald, p. 18

400. “nothing to be feared,” Macdonald to Lansdowne, Aug. 5, ‘84

400. “take up arms and commence killing,” report by H. Keeson to Maj. Crozier, Dewdney Papers, Sept., 25, ‘84

401. Andre: “A Man will not bring his wife,” to Dewdney, July, 7, ‘84

401. “Not long ago a humble schoolmaster,” Riel to Joseph Riel, in Stanley, Riel, pp. 279-80

401. “true fanatic [cq.],” Andre to Riel, Flanagan, Louis ‘David’ Riel, p.141

402. “shortest delay possible, “ Rouleau to Dewdney, Dewdney Papers, Sept. 5, ‘84

402, “don’t apprehend any rising,” Macdonald to J.C. Atkins, July, 28, ‘84

403. Wall Street Daily News: “a dead skin”, Gilbert, Stephen, p 143

403. “Pacific in trouble,” Macdonald to Tupper, Pope, Correspondence, Dec. 1, 1883, p. 308.

404. Macdonald: “You might as well ask,” in Skelton, Laurier, p. 272

404. J.H. Pope: “boys, he’ll do it,” Ibid, p. 273

405. Smith on Macdonald: “a much happier man”, Newman, Adventurers, p. 662

405. "I would leave the Government tomorrow," Macdonald to Tupper, June, 28, '84
405. "It is only because I want to be in," Macdonald to Stephen, Nov., 26, '83
405. Stephen: "I feel like a man walking on a precipice," Stephen to Macdonald, Dec., 29, '84
405. "Craigellachie", Gibbon, Steel of Empire, p. 278
406. "dare not ask for another loan," Macdonald to Tupper, Jan. 26, '85
407. Riel, "homeland dispossessed," CW, 4 vol, 54
408. Bourget, "God...has given you a mission," CW, A1- vol, 14
408. Riel keeps Bourget letter all his life, Siggins, Riel, p. 248
408. Riel, "joy which took such possession," Flanagan, Louis David, p. 56
408. Riel, "the spirit of God comes upon him," CW, 3 vol., 148
409. "chamber of horrors," Tuke, Riel: Insanity and Prophecy, p. 25
409. "more of less", cured. Siggins, p.270
409. Riel, "alone among people." CW, 2 vol., 103
410. "Faced with annihilation...hope", Flanagan, Louis David, p. 204
411. Jackson, "Petition Brit. Govt.", Ibid, p. 139
- 411-2. "taken possession of North-West," Metis delegates to Riel, Flanagan, Riel Rebellion, pp. 11-12
412. "merely a means to these ends," Ibid.
- 413, "Dumont, "But you must have known," Stanley, Riel, p. 338; interview by Dumont in Fort Benton, River Press, June 10, '85
413. Riel, "history will lay the blame," CW. Vol. 4, 94, (Translation by John Glassco)

CH. THE ONE WHITE THAN WHOM THERE IS NO HIGHER

419. "Indian matters and the land granting system," Macdonald to Dewdney, May 10, '85
- 419."bring a scalping party to the polls," Dickason, First Nations, p. 189
420. "place [Indians] on a footing of equality," Macdonald to P. Jones, Aug. 11, '86
420. "an insult to the free white people," Montgomery, The Six Nations, Ontario History, 1964, p. 20
421. Mills- Macdonald exchange, Commons Debates, April 31, '85, p. 1484
422. Macdonald: "They are the original owners... the great sufferers," Commons Debates, April 23, 1880, p. 1996
423. Macdonald: "vagrant without property...ox out of a deer," Ibid, May 5, 1880, p. 1991
423. Macdonald: "There is only one way, patience," Ibid, Jan. 10, '85, p. 2427
424. "literally in a starving condition," Stonechild, Loyal, p. 44
424. "in a very destitute condition," Dewdney to Macdonald, in Dempsey, Crowfoot, p. 113
425. White: "the treaties are made simply," Montreal Gazette, Sept. 29, '79
425. Cree chiefs: "If we must die," in Carter, Lost Harvests, p. 117
425. Dewdney: "doing all they can," in Titley, Frontier World, p. 52
425. "encouraged to believe," Saskatchewan Herald, March 26, '81
426. "The policy the North-West Indians," Beal/Macleod, Prairie Fire, p. 102
426. "humane and successful," Halifax Herald, March 3, '73
426. Globe: "a dark record of broken pledges," in Owram, Eden, p., 131
- 426-7. House Committee: "known in history,"
427. "considerably lower," Lakehead Centre for Northern Studies, 1988 report.
428. "cannot be dispossed," Macdonald to J. M. de Courtenay, Oct. 12, '67
428. "Indian reservations will prove," Macdonald to A.C. Ross, April, 10, '83

428. Crowfoot: "The Police have protected us," in Atkins, Maintain the Right, p. 110
428. FN. Sheridan: "The only good Indians", April, 28, '88
429. "noble looking," Toronto Mail, Aug. 24, '85
429. "his bearing was so dignified," Robert Jefferson, Fifty Years, p. 103
429. Poundmaker: "This is our land." Beal/Macleod, Prairie Fire, p. 55
429. Poundmaker: "clothe my people," Alexander Morris, Treaties, p. 213
431. Poundmaker: "the whites will fill the country, Margaret Stolie, Beaver, '1955, p. 5.
431. Dewdney re Big Bear: "very independent character," Dempsey, Big Bear, p. 90
431. Big Bear coyote vision, in Cameron, Blood Red, p. 36
- 431-2. Saskatchewan Herald: Big Bear, "conversed with many", March, '84, in Dempsey, Big Bear, p. 94

CH. 28. A DEFIANT, DOOMED GESTURE

434. "That the Half breeds...not received patents," in Thomas, Lewis, The Prairie West, p.102-3
435. "settlers are exposed" ; "...rather than the federal authorities", Ibid
435. Macdonald, "The Bill of Rights...", Commons' Debates, 23, March, '85
436. "The scrip is sold to the sharks," Macdonald to Lansdowne, Aug., 12, '84
436. "settling equitably," Macdonald to Dewdney, telegram, Feb. 4, '85
436. Macdonald, "with the greatest reluctance," July 6, '85
437. "In 40 days," Beal/Macleod, Prairie Fire, p. 131
437. "The Metis grievances" Flanagan, Riel, p. x
437. "disinterested," Ibid. p. 130

439. "a saint," Oblate Papers, Alberta Archives, Andre Journal.
439. "could only end in war," Ibid
440. "$3,000 to $5,000 would cart,"; "pay him a certain amount," D.H. McDowell to Dewdney, Dec. 24, '84
440. Macdonald, "I believe him came in," Commons Debates, '85, p. 745
441. "The whole dispute," Denison, Soldering in Canada , pp. 261-8
442. Steele, "as a housewife knows her kitchen," Steel, Forty Years, p. 91
442. Dumont: "God would listen to his prayers," Stanley, The Half-Breed 'Rising", in Lussier, The Other Natives, p. 157
442. Dumont: "Mine was the better plan," Woodcock, Dumont, p. 191-2
443. "No, No"; "suffer the consequences," Beal/Macleod, Prairie Fire, p. 134
443. "save our country," Flanagan, Riel Rebellion, p. 54
443. Riel: "Rome has fallen," to Rev. Fourmond," Stanley, Riel, p. 306
444. Exovedate: "prophet in the service," Siggins, p. 388
445. "Half-breed rebellion likely," Crozier to Dewdney, March, 14, '85
445. "The land claims..." Macdonald telegram to Dewdney, March 23, '85
446. "the greatest triumph of my life," Macdonald to Tupper,, July, 27, '85
446. "England is not at war," Macdonald to Tupper, Stacey, Canada and the Great Conflict, p. 43-4.
448. Crowfoot on Riel, "He wanted me to join..." Dempsey, Crowfoot, p. 120
448. "One who knows the Indian character," Lacombe to Dewdney, Ibid. 191
449. Big Bear, "We should not fight the Queen..." Saskatchewan Herald, Jan. 2, '83
450. Big Bear: "Stop. Stop" [cq] Stonechild, Loyal, p. 118
450. Riel: "destroy Fort Battle.." Ibid. p. 130
451. "localize the insurrection," Macdonald to Middleton, March, 29, '85

452. Macdonald: "Has anyone got a better plan?" Skelton, Laurier, p. 277
452. "Our difficulties are immense," Macdonald to Tupper, March 17, '85
452. "How will it end..." Ibid
453. Riel, "I have seen the giant..." Stanley, Gabriel Dumont, p. 258
454. Poundmaker, "now let them go." Stonechild, Loyal, p. 142
454. Riel, "I pray you to take away..." Stanley, Riel, p. 416
456. Dumont, "You must have known," Fort Benton, River Press, June 10, '85
456. Riel, "I'm the one they want..." de Treumundon. Hold High Your Heads, p. 141
456. Middleton, "a man of rather acute intellect," Morton, The Queen vs. p. 136
456. Capt. Young, "a mind against my own," Ibid. p. 275

CH. 29. WICKEDLY, MALICIOUSLY AND TRAITOROUSLY

457. "most wickedly...the Queen." Morton, Queen vs Riel, pp. 14-16
457. FN. "I hope we shall not be obliged," Macdonald to Campbell, May, 19, '85, Campbell Papers
458. "not guilty," Siggins, 419
458. "Judicial murder", Lewis Thomas, in Palmer, Settlement of the West, p. 37
458. Laurier: "I never saw any fair", Laurier to Blake 31, Dec. 85
458. Fitzpatrick: "It is impossible..." Globe and Telegram, 23, Oct., '85
459. Jury foreman cries, Morton, Last War Drum, p. 154
- 459-60. Riel lawyer, "obstructing the proper..." Goulet, The Trial, p. 120
460. Riel: "My counsel comes from Quebec..." Morton, Queen vs., p. 208
460. Crown agrees Riel to examine witnesses, Goulet, The Trial, p. 121

- 460-1, Riel: "Here I have to defend..." Ibid, p. 123
- 461."as sane as anyone else", Bliss, Canadian History, p. 170, testimony by Thomas McKay
461. "war of extermination," Riel to Crozier, March, 21, '85. Ibid.
462. McNaughten Rules, Flanagan, 1885 Reconsidered, p. 131
462. FN. Henry Clarke
464. "been brought home in a coffin," Hugh John Macdonald, "Some Feat" letter, published in Winnipeg Tribune, Aug. 26, 1958
465. Petitions to execute/commute Riel, Ontario and the Riel Affair, CHR, p. 42
465. "We may all hope Riel will get..." London Advertiser, May 29, '85
465. "nos braves volontaires," La Revue Canadienne, xx1, '85, p. 256
466. "dangerous lunatic..." Le Pionnier de Sherbrooke, July, 30, '85
467. "because Jackson is English while Riel," L'Electure, Aug., 7, '85
468. "The hopes of an entire nation," La Minerve, Nov. 17, '85
468. "An electric current is running..." Chapleau to W.W, Lynch, Nov. 21, '85, Neatby and Saywell, Chapleau and the Conservative Party, CHR, March ;1956
468. "defy Quebec"; "deep dismay," Willison, Reminiscences, p. 148
469. "the man represented a cause," [cq]. Waite, Arduous, p. 168
469. McDougall: "Canada cannot afford..." World, Aug., 8, '85
469. Anne Thompson:n "If you hang him..." Waite, Man from Halifax, p. 149
- 469-70. "When a life-long friend...bark in his favour," Parkin, Macdonald, pp.243-4
470. Grant: "the enlightened sense," London Advertiser, Sept., 7, '85
471. Gowan: "fatal blunder..." DCB on-line, Macdonald, p. 609
471. Gowan: "act of insanity..." Ibid,

471. “furia franchise”[cq.], Macdonald to Viscount Melgund, Sept. 1, 86
472. “not of delays or misjudgments...” Flanagan, Riel Reconsidered, p. 168
472. “Riel was a victim of the law,” Waite, Man from Halifax, p. 152
473. Riel: “And when your last day will come...” CW, vol.3, 140
473. Riel: “Take courage, I bless you.”, CW, vol. 3m 142

CH. 30. KNOCKING OFF THE QUEEN’S BONNET

476. Numbers of Metis and Indians on trial. Dickinson. First Nations, p. 311
476. “knocking off.” Queen vs One Arrow, CSP, 1886, p. 52
- 476-7. Andre: “not one of the other half-breeds,” Beal/Macleod, Prairie Fire, p. 309
477. Hayter Reed: “the punishment be public”, Reed to Dewdney, Sept. 6. 85. Glenbow Papers
478. Rouleau: “It is high time,” to Dewdney, June, 12, ‘85
479. Robertson, red Poundmaker, “this poor man is an Indian,” Stonechild, Loyal, p. 204
479. Poundmaker: “there is nothing that is true,” Ibid, p. 205
479. Poundmaker: “I would prefer to hang,” Ibid, p. 205
480. Big Bear, “Pity the children of my tribe,” Toronto Mail, 5, Oct. ‘85
481. “There I it is true,” Macdonald to Lansdowne, Nov. 13, ‘85
482. Laurier: “If I had been on the banks,” Schull, Laurier, 171
482. La Presse: Patriots or Traitors”, Nov. 17, ‘85
483. Macdonald: “blaze of straw”, Wade, French-Canadians, p. 417
483. Laurier: “cause the majority to organize,” Schull, 181
483. Orange Sentinel: “Must it be said...in all parts of Canada,” Skelton, Laurier, vol. 1, p. 321

483. Toronto Evening News: "Ontario pays," May, p. 5028, '85
483. Toronto Mail: "Ontario would smash," Nov. 25, '85
485. CPR bill for transporting troops, Berton, vol 2., p. 385
485. "It is impossible," Stephen to Macdonald, April, 11, '85
485. Stephen: "It is very hard having to fight," Berton, Ibid, p. 399
485. Van Horne: "Have no means paying," Stephen to Macdonald, April, 16, '85
486. "goodbye to the CPR." Stephen to Macdonald, May 12, '85
486. Van Horne: "We tossed up chairs," Morris Keith, Story of the CPR, pp. 57-8
487. Van Horne: "All I can say," Berton, Ibid, p. 416
487. "All abroad for the Pacific,:" Ibid.
487. Macdonald: "We have been made one people," Commons Debates, '85, p. 2504
489. "The execution of Riel," Macdonald to Dewdney, Nov., 30, '85
- 489-90. Hayter proposes pass system, Macdonald qualifies, Jennings, The NWMP, in, Barron, 1885 and After, p. 225
490. "The only way of effecting," Macdonald to Dewdney, Feb., 4, '86
491. The Week: Poundmaker's sentence "disproportionate", Nov. 20, '85
491. Pitblado: "national life has been paralyzed," Owrap in Melnyk, From Riel to Reform, p. 86
491. Saskatchewan Herald: "Good and loyal Indians," May, 28, '85
491. Mills: "the doctrine of the survival", Macleod, The NWMP and law enforcement, p. 164
- 491-2. Darwin; "highly injurious to the race," Banquet at Delmonico's, p. 101-2
492. Big Bear death, Wilson, Frontier Farewell, p. 439
495. Stanley: "Of only one thing I am certain," Stanley, The Last Word, in Bowsfield, Selected Readings, pp. 55-6

496. Poundmaker re-burial, Sluman, Poundmaker, p. 301

CH. 31. YOU'LL NEVER DIE

498. "You may be sure..." Lady Macdonald to Louisa, May, 21, '87, Johnson, Affectionately, p. 169

499. "He was so tired and worried," Lady Macdonald to Louisa, Jan., 19, '86, Ibid, p. 163

499. "Ottawa seems so dull," Ibid, p. 163

500. Lady Macdonald: "constantly nursing the sick," Reynolds, Agnes, p. 106

501. "I hope Sir John will go," Lady Macdonald to Louisa, Affectionately, p. 170.

501. Lady Macdonald: "never rest until he goes," Ibid, p. 165

501. Lady Macdonald: "the darling dream of his heart," in By Car and Cowcatcher, Murray's Magazine, Jan.-June, '87, p. 222

501. "a prodigy among cities," Lady Macdonald, Reynolds, Agnes, p. 109.

501-2. Pope: "It is excellently paved," Maurice Pope, Public Servant, p. 53

502. "in their bright red coats," Lady Macdonald, Murray's Magazine, p. 225

502. Macdonald: "In some places people take off their hats", Guillet, You'll Never Die, p. 105

503. Lady Macdonald, "The instant my eye rested," Car and Cowcatcher, p. 235

503. Pope: "I could not help feeling," Pope Papers, Diary, p. 88

504. Port Moody Gazette: "gay as a lark," Phenix, Private Demons, p. 173

504. Lady Macdonald, "I counted four pages," Murray's Magazine, July-Dec. '87, Men and Measures in Canada, p.386

505. Lady Macdonald: "Is life worth living?" Ibid, On a Canadian Salmon River, p. 647

505. "the Swedish massage", Macdonald to Dewdney, Aug. 17, '88

505. "She is a gentle, amiable girl," Hugh John Macdonald to Williamson, Aug. 27, '89
506. "I suppose you will soon," Mary Macdonald to Macdonald, Dec. 25, '85, Affectionately, p. 158
506. "Are you very lonely," Mary to Macdonald, April, 16, '87, Ibid, p. 168
506. "I have tried to teach," Lady Macdonald to Louisa, May 21, '87, Ibid, p. 169
- 506-7. "perfectly convinced," Hugh John Macdonald to Williamson, Aug., 27, '89. Ibid, p. 185
507. "I was pleased and rather surprised," Hugh John to Macdonald, April, 26, '85, Ibid, p. 156
507. Hugh John, critical of bilingualism, letter to Williamson, Aug, 27, '89, Ibid, p 185-6
507. "great pride in her lessons," Mary Macdonald about Daisy, letter to Macdonald, Dec. 10, '89, Ibid, p. 187
508. "Your little puss," Daisy Macdonald to Macdonald, Dec. 8, '89, Ibid, p. 187
509. "My dear Little Friend," Macdonald to Lottie Prentiss, Pope, Memoirs, p. 645
509. Louisa: Williamson, "dining out", Phenix, Private Demons, p. 242.
509. "I fear the Professor is breaking up," Macdonald to Louisa, Oct. 3, '80. Affectionately, p. 143
509. "I am chained by the leg," Macdonald to Louisa, Dec., 10, '87, Ibid, p. 173
509. "Complete rest is your best medicine," April, 27, '87, Ibid, p. 176
510. "[You] and she had lived together," Hugh John to Williamson, Ibid, Nov. 20, '88, Ibid, p. 179
511. "You'll never die," Toronto Mail, Dec. 18, '85
511. "I can sing my nunc dimittis," Macdonald to Carnarvon, Sept. 8, '85
511. "lost all interest in public service," Macdonald to Stephen, April, 24, '88
512. Macdonald: "When a man like myself," Johnson, A Tribute, in Historic Kingston, 1979, p. 36

CH. 32. THE WHEELS OF HIS MIND

513. "The constant giving way," Campbell to Macdonald, Nov., 3, '83
514. "Don't be disgusted at the ingratitude," Macdonald to Stephen, Aug. 4, '88
515. "I think we must choose men," Macdonald to Chapleau, June, 6, '88
515. "skin your own skunks," Macdonald to Hibbert Tupper, Pope, The Day, p. 153
- 515-6. "His only fault," Macdonald to Tupper, June, 5, '90
517. Macdonald: "That is just why he hates me," Maurice Pope, Public Servant, p. 50
517. Macdonald: "A little while she strove," quoted in Charles Hibbert Tupper Papers, no date.
517. Annie Thompson: "sere old crows", Waite, Man from Halifax, p. 130
518. "The Premier is the Ministry," Macdonald to Schultz, May, 7, '80, in Pope, Correspondence, p. 468
518. "There are wheels", McLelan to Macdonald, June 19, '89
519. Macdonald: "entered the path of literature," Pope, Memoirs, p. 5
520. "sacrificial lamb," A History of the Vote, on-line pdf. p. 49
520. Lady Macdonald: "Those silly women," Reynolds, Agnes, p. 176
- 520-1. "women know men better," Willison, Reminiscences, p.178
521. Macdonald: "that Canada would have the honour," Commons Debates, April, 27,'85, pp 1388-9.
521. Macdonald: "It is a mere matter of time," Ibid
523. "there is now... a prejudice", "Property has its duties," Macdonald to Rose, Oct. 12, '80
524. "a duty" Conference of Methodists in, Richard Allen, The Social Gospel and the Reform Tradition, CHR, vol. XLIV, Dec., 1968

524. Royal Commission membership; enactment of Labour Day, in Greg Kealey, Canada Investigates Industrialization, p. xiii.
525. (to Macdonald): "You are too busy." Ibid, p. xix
526. Toronto News: "nothing but a government," Nov. 26, '83, in Rutherford, Victorian Authority,
526. Victoria Times: "Democracy is upon us," June, 19, 1890, Ibid
527. "the monarchial idea should be fostered," Macdonald to Knutsford, July 18, '90, Pope, Correspondence, p. 4505
527. "in almost every transaction"; "without doing anything," Stephen to Macdonald, July 29, '90
527. "On the other hand," Ibid.
528. "The Canadian Pacific is in reality," Stephen to Macdonald, 5, May, '82
529. "There is no reason why the red man," Macdonald to J.W. Falls, May, 23, '85
529. "The judge was wrong," Macdonald to Campbell, June, 20, '85
529. "You have made a great strike," Macdonald to Galt, Feb., 26, '82
530. "Commercial union would be valuable," Macdonald to Hincks, Sept. 18, '84
530. Macdonald: "Either you can have," Peter Ward, White Canada, p.10
531. Macdonald: "I share very much", Commons Debates, May 12, '82, p. 1447
531. Macdonald: "They are not of our people," Ibid, March 25, '84, p. 1287
531. Macdonald: "It is not considered advantageous," Ibid, May, 31, '87
531. Grant: "discrimination...contrary to the spririt," Berger, Sense of Power, p. 25
532. Chapleau: "not an inferior race"; "moderate restrictions," Roy, A White Man's, p.
- 532, "No Yellow Slave," Ward, White Canada, p. 41
533. Exclude, "Mongolian and Chinese," Commons Debates, April, 17, '85, p. 1888

CH. 33. THE SECOND BELL

534. Troubadour: "We thought we saw an open path," Macdonald Papers, Vol. 471, no. 233910
534. Thompson: "kiss all the girls," Waite, Macdonald, p. 184
535. Macdonald: "We could not have a weaker opponent," Creighton, vol.2, p. 470
535. Fielding motion: "withdrawing from," Rawlyk, Regional Frontiers, QQ, Spring, '68, pp 105-113.
536. "The legislature of Nova Scotia, Halifax Herald, April, 29, '87
537. Goldwin Smith: "To make a nation," Bystander, Dec., 89, p. 78
538. Goldwin Smith: "The task of his political life...second bell had rung," The Week, Feb. 28, '84
539. Mercier, "confidential meeting"; Macdonald, "unofficial", Glazebrook, Political Thought, p. 190.
542. "For the hideous robbery," Manitoba Free Press, Aug. 24, '87
542. Tupper: "Should the interests", Chester Martin, Dominion Lands Policy in Mackintosh/Joerg, Canadian Frontiers, p. 276
- 542-3. Edmonton Bulletin: "The sun rises," Nov. 1, '84,
545. "cold-blooded as an executioner," on McCarthy, Miller, As a Politician, in CHR, No. 4, p. 402
545. McCarthy: "It is not religion," quoted in F. Landon, D'Alton McCarthy, CHA Review, 1932, p. 46
546. "the holy Father reserves to himself," Miller, Equal Rights, p. 20
546. "Suddenly the old man unbent," on Macdonald, in Pope, The Day, pp. 164-5
- 547, Grip: "transform this dominion," Cumming, Bengough's Verses, in CHR, p. 547
547. "The demon of religious animosity", Macdonald to Gowan, July 10, '90
- 547-8. "the unwholesome agitation," Macdonald to Tupper, 31, May, '89

548. Macdonald: "Anger keeps men witty," Miller, Equal Rights, p. 113-4
548. "Our views are so wide apart," McCarthy to Macdonald, Glazebrook, Political Thought, p. 169
548. "not whether we are annexed," Ibid.
549. McCarthy, "bastard nationality", Miller, op cit, p. 184
549. Martin: "a foreign language", Waite, Arduous, p. 215
549. Martin re Manitoba Gazette, separate schools, Miller, D'Alton McCarthy, CHR, 4 Dec., 1973, p. 380
- 549, McCarthy: "in the interests of national unity," Commons Debates, Dec. 12, 1890.
549. "one of the great debates," Waite, op cit. p. 217
550. "oppress the [French] language"; "there is no paramount race," Macdonald, Commons Debates, Feb. 17, 1890, p. 745-50
- 551/ "That such acts"; "Are we, one hundred years later," Ibid, Feb. 17, 1890, p. 893-6
552. Henri Bourassa: "the one man who best understood," Debates, March 2, '27, p. 824

CH. 34. LOYALTY VERSUS THE DOLLAR

553. FN. "O Canada, sweet Canada," by Arthur Bennett, in Moyles, Imperial Dreams, p. 28-9
554. Freeman, in Empire: "It broke in great waves," Cumming, Secret Craft, p. 4
554. Cartwright, Ingersoll speech, Tansill, Canadian-American Relations, p. 398-9
555. "No scheme in which Canada," Philadelphia Record, in Waite, Arduous, p. 206
555. "We had to adopt this project," Cartwright to Laurier, Sept. 17., '88
556. Globe survey, in Moyles, op. cit, p. 28
557. Wiman: "the world moves," Brown, The Commercial Unionists, p. 117

557. Butterworth: "the Canadians are satisfied, Brown, Canada's National Policy, p. 131
557. Butterworth: "assimilation and unity," Ibid, p. 131
558. Bayard: "the Confederation of Canada," Brebner, North Atlantic, p. 247
558. Blaine: "Canada is like an apple," Toronto Mail, Feb. 13, '90
558. Blaine: "teetotally opposed," Thompson, Canada and the United States, p.60
558. "will find she has a hard row to hoe," Blaine to President Harrison, Sept. 23, '91
559. Willison, "Do you think these men at Washington," Cumming, Secret Craft, p. 10
560. Detroit Tribune: "the plans of our secretary of state,"
560. "our manufacturers are too young," Macdonald to Tupper, July 28, '84
561. "We must countermine," Macdonald to D. Blaine, Jan. 6, '90
561. Macdonald, on Commercial Union: "a dead duck", G.P. de Glazebrook, Canada's External Relations, p. 181
- 561-2. Chamberlain: "pave the way for the surrender," Tansill, op cit, p. 403
- 562-3. Blaine: "full but private conference," Ibid, p. 399
563. Blaine: "no negotiations whatever," Globe, Jan. 30, '91
563. Macdonald: "We have burned our bridges," in Brown, Canada's National Policy, p. 205-6
564. "Wait a little friends," Patrica Ward, Canadian Anti-Americanism, JCS, June, 2001,
- 565-6. Macdonald: "You manufacturers," to D. Morrish, Feb. 3, '91
566. "Our canvass is very nearly complete," Van Horne to Macdonald, Feb. 28, '91
- 566-7. Macdonald: The question which...the preservation of our commercial and political freedom," Election Manifesto, Pope, Memoirs, Appendix XXV111, p. 772
567. Macdonald: "the aged leader"; "I believe that this election," in Hammond, Confederation, p. 40

568. Macdonald on Farrer: "Sir John's disappearance," Cumming, op. cit. p. 192
- 568-9. Mowat: "I am glad that I was born," Evans, Mowat, p. 290-1
569. Tupper-Macdonald "dual allies", in Wilfrid Smith, Tupper, at LAC unpublished, p. 278
569. Pope: "To this sudden change of temperature," Memoirs, p. 627
570. Pope: "his face of ashen grey", Ibid, p. 627-8
570. Macdonald: "I was surprised and aggrieved," to Stephen, March 31, '91
571. "There is practically no Conservative Party," Hugh John to Macdonald, Jan., 7. '91, Affectionately, p. 188-190
572. Blake: "a well-understood precursor to political union," in, Schull, Laurier, p. 253
572. Harrison: "I have never seen," to Blaine, Sept. 18, '91, Harrison Papers, Michigan State U.

CH. 35. A LAST BOW FROM THE STAGE

573. baggage-master pay increase, Macdonald to Foster, May 2, '91
574. "very much better," Hugh John to Williamson, May 19, '91, Affectionately, p. 203
574. Macdonald: "I am afraid of paralysis," Pope, Memoirs, p. 629
575. Thompson: "very well and bright," to Anne, Creighton, vol.2, p. 562
575. Macdonald in barber shop, Biggar, p. 282
575. "I will go. Good-night," Macdonald to Bowell, Ibid, p. 283
576. "She never left his side," Stanley to Queen Victoria, Reynolds, Agnes, p. 134
576. "Hemorrhage on the brain," Dr. Grant, Creighton, vol. 2, p. 570
577. "Sir John passed," medical bulletin, June 4, Powell, The Last Ten Days, p. 14
577. Pope: "Gentlemen, Sir John Macdonald is dead," Montreal Gazette, May, 8, '91
- 577-8. Laurier: "The place of Sir John Macdonald," Commons Debates, June 8, '91

578. Thompson: "There is no one of us," Waite, The Man, p. 294
578. Goldwin Smith: "He combined life-long experience," Wallace, Victorian Liberal, p. 86
578. "He was no harsh, self-righteous Pharisee," Grip, vol. 36, June 13, '91
578. Sir Daniel Wilson: "clever, most unprincipled," Simpson, Spoils, p. 96
578. Cartwright on Macdonald statue, Willison, Reminiscences, p. 182
- 578-9. "The dying Premier had a hold," The Week, June 5, '91
579. "It was no common man," Willison, op cit. p. 200
581. Lady Macdonald, "joy" had gone, to Pope, June 11, '95
- 581-2. Lady Aberdeen: "unconcealed grief," Shackleton, Doris, Ishbel and Empire, p. 113
582. Lady Macdonald: "I know Sir John would not approve," quoted by Art Milne, Kingston Whig-Standard, June 29, 2002
582. Lady Macdonald: "going in spirit to the old place," Reynolds, Agnes, p. 142
582. Lady Macdonald, "I am in truth," to Pope, Oct. 17, '97, Pope Papers
583. Lady Macdonald, on Mary, "Everyone pets", Reynolds, p. 141
586. Hugh Gainsford, life and career, interview with author.
587. Abbott: "I hate politics," Abbott, Reluctant Politician, unpublished, in Forward.
591. Grant: "He believed that there was room"; "The people followed him" Parkin, Macdonald, p. 329